

Package installation

To get started, you need to install Webitel CallManager package of the latest current version.

For installation on versions of bpm'online 7.10 and above, use the standard functionality of the system designer - "Installing packages" in the bpm'online interface.

Package Installation Interface:

If you want to use Webitel Telemarketing, then, in the same way, you need to install the Telemarketing.gz package using the same functionality.